ST. NICHOLAS.

SCRIBNER'S ILLUSTRATED MAGAZINE FOR GIRLS AND BOYS.

*The LONDON ACADEMY, of December 28th, 1877, says: "In ST. NICHOLAS we welcome the best among the numerous illustrated magazines that are now published for young people. We have no hesitation in saying that both in the letter-press and in the pictures this Art of our magazine has no rival."*

In ST. NICHOLAS for December, the Grand Christmas Number, was begun a charming story:

Serial Story by Miss Alcott.

"Under the Lilacs," illustrated by MARY HALLOCK FOOTE, to continue during the year. This same Christmas number, of which one hundred thousand copies were printed, contained the opening chapters of a "BEGINNER COURSE IN STORY" for boys, "Fower-Mountain," by GUSTAVUS BRANKENSTEIN, also poems by LONGFELLOW and BRYANT, a portrait of Miss Alcott, half a dozen short stories, descriptive papers, etc., etc. It is the handsomest number of a child's magazine ever issued.

THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE says:

"ST. NICHOLAS has a list of contributors such as no other child's magazine, or few publications of any sort, in the world can boast. It has called the best writers in America to join their efforts to task of giving delight and imparting instruction to children. In the avalanche of immoral literature that threatens the town, some strong, vitally wholesome, the really attractive magazine is required for boys and girls. ST. NICHOLAS has reached a higher plane, and commands for its pages work of greater resources in art and letters, than any of its predecessors or contemporaries."

ST. NICHOLAS FOR 1878.

Besides the SERIAL STORIES above announced, will have a short serial story by the author of The Schonberg-Cotta Family; and Dennis Kendall's Rambles from Home, by which "Dipsy Doings" Foxy," by Edwin Hopper. English writer, will begin in March: "Around the world in a Yacht. Boy" has been promised by a brilliant writer, now on the actual tour of the world in his own yacht. Tales will be contributed by a daughter of the Czar of Russia, by Lucy Larcom, and a Letter to Young Americans by GEORGE MACDONALD.

The "HOW" Series of instructive papers, by various authors, will tell HOW to bind your own books; HOW they make seal; HOW to enjoy yourselves at a dinner; HOW to begin agreeable guests; HOW to entertain children; HOW to be a carpenter; HOW to make an ice-boat; HOW to build a house; How India rubber is gathered; HOW matches are made; HOW to be a Parlor Magician; HOW money is made; HOW mackerel are caught; HOW they bid the Atlantic cable; HOW they make the Cullenan; HOW to work in the tea-country, etc., etc. There will be also a series of stories and sketches of Fore ign Life.

TERMS AND ADVERTISERS.

Including such as "Old Nicolas" (a Russian story), "A Day among the Welsh Castles," "Easter in Germany," "The Indians of the Amazon," "How Ricky was lost in a Turkish Bazar," "Master Montezuma in Mexican story), "Hansel the Lazy Maiden," and many others.

"Jack-in-the-Pulpit," "Letter-Box," "Riddle Box," and "For Very Little Folks," will be continued.

C. G. ESTABROOK.

Attest—W. G. SMITH.

Bangor, June 28, 1878.

To my Patrons and Friends in Bangor and vicinity—Greeting.

For many years I have used VULCANITE RUBBER as a BASE for artificial teeth. For the last 3 years I have used it exclusively, having made preparations in this way, have experimented with rubber in its mouth. But for more than 18 months I have used the Vulcanite, called the "SOLOID" Base, with the greatest satisfaction. This plate is entirely free from everything that can produce irritation to the mouth, and is much lighter and stronger than rubber. I am pleased with it, and the manner I use it in the patient likes it. It is a very simple thing to the use of RUBBER, and I would say to those in need of teeth, call and examine "SOLOID" for a very small cost.

All kinds of work done to me, I will do in the best possible manner and at as low cost terms.

Yours truly,

J. K. LINCOLN,

Office No. 9, Wheeler's Block & Clerk's Block, Bangor.

DOMESTIC NEWS.

THE POTTER INVESTIGATION.

Mr. Wheeler recalled.

WASHINGTON, July 3. The Potter Committee met at 11 o'clock Mr. Hanson presiding. Mr. L. Wheeler was recalled and testified that the Conference in New Orleans during the count in 1876 it was understood was led by Senator Sherman. In connection with Sherman Witness was informed that if his friends should stand by him he would be protected. In compliance with the request of Sherman Witness went after his brother, and Mr. Anderson informing them that the visiting statesmen were desirous of seeing them. Mr. Anderson in reply to the statement said: "All them to go to h—l." His brother or whoever went to see Mr. Stevens and that he had a heated conversation during the contest. Two or three days after this conversation occurred his brother showed him the Sherman letter of assurance, and told him Mr. Sherman gave it to him at the conclusion of the conference relative to negotiating by his protest and assumed it was the best he could do at that time.

Q. Did your brother agree to stand by his pledge?

A. He hesitated about doing so, but could not well avoid it considering the pressure brought to bear upon him.

Mr. Springer—Did you have the Sherman letter in your hand?

A—Yes sir, I did.

Q—What kind of paper was it written on?

A—It was written on double sheet note paper. Witness then showed the size of the paper, which was about half the size of the letter Mrs. Jenks said the letter was written on. She claimed that it was written on single sheet commercial letter paper. Witness said it was arranged before that election that Packard, Thos. C. Anderson and Packard, were to secure a division of intimidation in the parishes of East and West Feliciana for the purpose of throwing out those parishes. He was assured by Mallery and others that if he would use his influence with his brother it stands having him make a protest (he refused) would be returned to the Senate if he was defeated for State Senate by twelve hundred votes and was returned by the Returning Board as elected by about six hundred majority. In reply to Hinton witness stated that some of the visiting statesmen had an interview with Miss Pinkston in the Custom House before she was brought before the Returning Board. He thought one of those he believed was Senator Sherman. In view of the opinion that the Eliza Pinkston outrage was a "put up job."

Mr. Springer—Did you see the affidavit of Miss Pritchard formerly Eliza Pinkston published last Saturday?

A—Yes sir.

Q—Can you state whether or not it is true?

A—To the best of my knowledge and belief it is true.

Mr. Springer then sent for a copy of the Herald that in view of submitting the affidavit to witness. Mr. Wheeler then rose to put the circumstances as told him by the colored woman concerning the visits of Miss Pinkston to the Custom House and the subsequent letter which was delivered to Mrs. Dee before Mr. Hoar left.

NEW ORLEANS, June 25, 1878.

Mrs. Dee—Dear Madam: I am informed by the Republican Executive Committee of Washington under the 4th resolution it is directed important to bring you there as a witness at once. Mrs. Jenks will bear this to you and explain the affair to you.

Very respectfully,

L. A. SHERMAN.

To Madame E. D. Wheeler.

Mrs. Jenks explained to Mrs. Wheeler that Mrs. Sherman desired talking her to go to Washington and testify. She did not know of the existence of the Sherman letter. Mrs. Wheeler refused complying with the request unless I saw and talked to the parties myself. Mrs. Jenks then proposed to have her husband and Solomon go to Washington. At this time a brother of Mrs. L. A. Wheeler came to Donaldsonville and reading Mrs. Jenks asked what that woman was doing there again, and whether or not she was after the Sherman letter.

Mrs. Wheeler told her brother not to meddle with her affairs; that she had the Sherman letter, and would do with it as she pleased. Wheeler had not informed her that he had destroyed the despatches. Mrs. Jenks had told Mrs. Wheeler that the letter was worth thousands and that she would pay her a good price for it. Mrs. Jenks never intimated that she had anything to do with the authorship of the Sherman letter, but always spoke of it as a letter written by John Sherman, causing Wheeler and Anderson restless under the administration. At this point the New York Herald correspondent Pritchard's affidavit was handed to Springer and was submitted by him to Judge Reinhenger, who represented the minority Republican members being present. Reinhenger objected to the affidavit being put in evidence and Springer agreed to let the question over until the minority shall have passed upon the question.

Witness submitted in evidence a letter written him by Judge Marks, now Internal Revenue Collector at New Orleans, where Marks requested the witness to inform him whether he would accept an appointment to Judge since appointed Kellogg. Witness informed Mrs. Weber that he could not accept an appointment as postmistress at Donaldsonville for which she had once applied as it had been announced by Marks as the time opposed to her appointment. Marks previous to this had been to Donaldsonville and requested Mrs. Weber to make the change. Witness had never known of the existence of the Sherman letter.

During this visit Mabie told witness and his sister-in-law that they were both to be subpœnaed to Washington before the Investigating committee. Witness stated that he was afraid the purpose of that the appointment by Packard were intended to influence his testimony before the committee. Witness also stated that he was informed by Mallery that Packard had given him a letter of introduction to Sherman. Witness also stated that he could control the vote of Donaldsonville if he was appointed postmaster. Witness was then cross-examined by Gen Cox of the committee with the following result:

The committee then adjourned till July 20th at 10 A. M.

NEW LONDON, July 3. David Trumbull, who moved from number 7 car in the recent Yale-Harvard Race, and Col. Charles Hall of Norwich, were drowned in New London harbor at 5 o'clock this afternoon. Their bodies were recovered.

MISSOURI.

Crookedness at Weston.

ST. JOSEPH, July 3. The Missouri river is higher than since 1844, it being 17 feet above low water mark. Considerable damage has been done to the iron bridge spanning the river at this point by the current washing in and causing the east abutment to sink down 8 or 10 feet, letting the shore end of the first span touch the water. At present the bridge is impassible.

CALIFORNIA.

Election Returns.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 3.

The official election returns received from all except seven counties, beside San Francisco, in which the official canvass is not yet complete, with counties yet to hear from will give non-partisan majorities. The result of the count shows beyond a doubt that the non-partisans have elected all their delegates-at-large and probably fifty-four county delegates, tho' they may lose one of that number. The Kearneyites elect fifty-one and probably fifty-two to sixty delegates, the Republicans eight and the Democrats seven.

The non-partisans will thus have a majority in the convention of the 17 or 20 over all others. It must also be remembered the Republicans and Democrats elected Kearneyites: the conservative element. It is also true that the members of the delegation from the Interior or working men's ticket are not in sympathy with what is called the Kearney agitation, and the same may be said of some of the city delegation. The Revolutionary element will form a small minority in the convention.
